Instructions for filling Form DVAT 42 (For details refer Section 84 and Rule 58)

1. Only one transaction can be included in a single application. No other alternatives can be included in the same application.
2. You must either have entered into the transaction as set out in the application or be seriously contemplating it.
3. You need to give all relevant details and information to the Commissioner about the transaction in the application and the supporting documents.
4. The legal opinion attached with this application should include the following:
 - Sections of any legislation that are relevant to the application
 - Legal reasons and appropriate case law that support the interpretation of the section(s) adopted in the draft determination
 - Possible arguments contrary to the interpretation adopted in the determination you are seeking and legal reasons and authoritative support for these
 - Other material or relevant matters or sources of information that the Commissioner should know about to ensure access to all pertinent facts and law
5. Inadequate discussion of the legal issues in the application may lead to treatment of the application as being incomplete, request for further legal arguments (delaying the processing and issuing of the determination) or conduction of significant additional research by the Commissioner. In complex matters, you might consider approaching a professional tax adviser to assist you in preparing your written application
6. In the draft determination, you are required to focus on exactly what you want covered by the determination, to help the Commissioner understand precisely what you want. There is no required format for this draft determination, but it has to contain all the required information and set out your answer to the question raised
7. The Department can request further relevant information from you at any time
8. The Commissioner can make assumptions about future events or aspects of a transaction that will be set out in the binding determination when we issue it. However, the Commissioner cannot make assumptions about facts or information that you are able to supply to the Commissioner
9. The Commissioner can stipulate conditions in the determination that must be met if the taxation law is to apply to the transaction as set out in the determination
